Dear Justice Jones,

In response to your email below, please find attached a laid out version of the Youth Sexual Violence and Abuse Steering Committee Final Report May 2017 (final report). This along with your covering letters transmitting the Steering Committee's final report to Minister Furner and Minister Fentiman were progressed and are currently with to Minister Furner's office. Minister Furner will then progress the final report and your covering letter to Minister Fentiman.

The respective Ministers' thoughts in relation to formalising the handover of the final report to the Queensland Government, including related media, will be canvassed with the Minister's office shortly.

To support these conversations, can you please confirm your arrival date back in Brisbane?

I will ensure we keep regular contact as progress continues.

Kind regards

Emma King

Dear Steering Committee Members

As many of you are aware, the Honourable Stanley G Jones AO, is overseas at the moment.

On behalf of Mr Jones, I wanted to take the opportunity to extend my sincere thanks to you for your continued hard work and advice in drafting Youth Sexual Violence and Abuse Final Report and to provide you with a brief update. The report is currently being professionally laid out, to be ready for printing and publication. It is anticipated this process will take approximately two to three weeks to finalise, and a copy of the designed version of the Youth Sexual Violence and Abuse Final Report will be forwarded for your noting.

As per the Terms of Reference, the Honourable Stanley G Jones AO will be writing on behalf of the Steering Committee to the Honourable Mark Furner, Minister for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Partnerships and the Honourable Shannon Fentiman, Minister for Communities, Women and Youth, Minister for Child Safety and Minister for the Prevention of Domestic and Family Violence to commend the Youth Sexual Violence and Abuse Final Report for the Queensland Government's consideration.

We are also seeking advice from the Minister in relation to a preferred approach to formalising the handover of the report.

Again, I would like to extend my sincere thanks to you all for your continued hard work and I will continue to update you on these final steps in the process as information comes to hand.

Kind regards

Dear Minister,

I have the honour to present to you the Steering Committee's Final Report on Youth Sexual Violence and Abuse. The report has been endorsed by all members of the Committee except for Mr Noel Pearson who may wish to comment separately on his concerns and proposed actions in response.

As the report reveals, youth sexual violence and abuse is a complex problem without established pathways or programs for dealing with it. The initial actions taken in response to the recommendations of the Smallbone Report have been beneficial and need to be considered for introduction in other areas of demonstrated need. But the long term aim of elimination of youth sexual violence and abuse will require a committed educative approach to the changing of behaviour of individuals and changing the norms and values in society at large – an important quest which the Committee will continue to support. We wish you success in your endeavours.

Yours faithfully,

Hon. Stanley Jones AO QC
